Honoring and Celebrating a Great Friend Sharon Stromsness

Nothing needs be said about Sharon Stromsness. Her life, her work, and the many people whose lives she touched says it all. The celebration of her life is this Saturday, 10 a.m. at St. Barnabas Church in Mount Shasta. There is a reception following the service. Rune says that there is no need for our Club to provide anything. Just bring yourself and other people you know who would like to honor Sharon and her family.

Help Needed

The church expects a very good turnout so we have been asked to help by providing our chairs. The last I heard, we need people willing to load and unload chairs on Friday evening (Dunsmuir to St. Barnabas). We will also need people to reverse the process after the reception. Here's what we need (tentatively. Things may change.)...

- Friday
Trailer or several pickups & drivers/lumpers
4 p.m. • Old Lion's Building
Load chairs • Take to St. Barnabas & set up
- Saturday
Trailer or several pickups & drivers/lumpers
TBD • St. Barnabas
Load chairs • Take to Old Lion's Building

Chili Cook-Off Competition

The competition will be People's Choice style. Each participant will have on their table a small bucket. Each taster will receive one raffle ticket that they can drop in the bucket of their favorite chili. The one with the most votes wins! The cash prize is still being determined but it'll be pretty awesome so don't worry!

Official Chili Cook-Off Rules

- Chili must be prepared on site.
- Please make at least 5 gallons.
- Any ingredients may be used.
- Chili must be ready for consumption by 2pm on the day of the competition.
- This is supposed to be a fun, community competition so don't cheat or else the Mayor will come after you!
