Clone Yourself for Saturday Fun

Dunsmuir Ball Field

Saturday

2 - 5 p.m.

Old-Fashioned
Hometown Carnival

5 - 7 p.m.

Dinner & Music

Dunsmuir High School is putting on an Old-Fashioned, Hometown Carnival complete with a dunk tank this Saturday from 2 p.m. until 5 p.m. at the Dunsmuir Ball field (where they play football). The event is to raise money for DHS sports programs (all of them!) In addition to the dunk tank, other booths such as a ring tops and face painting will offer fun and entertainment for young and old alike. Tickets cost $1 for three with the price going down the more you buy.

After enjoying the fair, you can have a great dinner and musical entertainment for just $10 per person. (I don't know the menu, but tritip seems likely).

You can buy dinner tickets at Gary's Pizza, Burger Barn, DBW, or at the gate.

Pop's Cultural Center

Saturday

5 - 11 p.m.

Free Dinner and
No Host Bar for the Dunsmuir
Community Garden

After enjoying the fair, if you want a change of scenery and want to support another good cause, you can travel 1.1 miles south by west-south-west to Pop's Cultural Center at 5819 Sacramento Avenue to feast on a free pasta dinner. While there, visit the no-host bar to help raise funds for the Dunsmuir Community Garden.

The event has been organized by Rami White (who incidentally would make a good Rotarian) with David C's help. Our Club is a co-sponsor. We'll be needing help at the bar pouring wine and beer. David will give us more details, and we'll be passing around sign-up sheets for bar duty. Can't figure out which event to go to? Go to both!

If this photo looks familiar, then good. That means you’ve looked at this month’s issue of The Rotarian. The issue focuses on our efforts to eliminate polio from the world, and to me this image speaks of the broad-based, massive effort we’ve undertaken as Rotarians. Why massive if it shows just one woman? Because our success thus far, and our eventual total success depends on individuals like you, and me, and this woman.

I Need Help!

Not that kind! (Well, maybe I do, but . . .)

It’s going to be dictionary time soon, and as always, we get the first and last names of all the 3rd graders in our community. I have those from DES and Mattole Valley. But I’m having problems gutting the last names from Castle Rock School. After contacting them and getting only the first names, I contacted them again twice. But so far no response. Would someone like to help me out on this?
